

If you're coming into Reading by car from the south or west, use park and ride from Madejski Stadium.

It's just off junction 11 on the M4, so it's easy to find and easy to use.

Buses ferry you quickly into central Reading up to every 7 or 8 minutes and back again, all day long Mondays to Saturdays.

Getting to Reading International Business Park is easy with Madejski Fasttrack buses every 15 minutes Mondays to Fridays.

Park and Ride parking

Parking for Park&Ride customers at Madejski Stadium is free (apart from when sporting or other events are held at the stadium).

The car park is supervised from 7.00am to 7.00pm Mondays to Saturdays. Parking is at owners risk.

Football Information

On Saturdays when Reading FC have a home game at Madejski Stadium the free Park&Ride parking is suspended from 3 hours before kick-off (normally 12 noon for a 3pm kick-off) or when full if earlier.

Fasttrack Park&Ride buses continue to run for the benefit of customers but from 4.15pm at St. Mary's Butts the service is suspended until approximately 5.30pm in order to ferry supporters from the Stadium directly to the Station.

This also applies to London Irish rugby matches on Saturdays from 2 hours before kick-off.

Rugby Information

Special bus services run for London Irish matches including Sundays. Buses run from Reading Station to the Stadium from at least 2 hours before kick-off with frequent returns after the match. For more information contact Reading Borough Council or London Irish.
